Phoenix AZ – February 20, 2009

After an eventful year of operations Chandler Cinemas is celebrating the fact that it's still open and reaching out to the community for support with a weekend long "Fun-Raiser". Friday March 20 through Sunday March 22 the theater will host an array of events with something for everyone as well as a market place of goods from local vendors and supporters of the Theater.

Friday March 20 director of SAW 2, 3 & 4 as well as REPO! The Genetic Opera, Darren Lynn Bousman will return to Phoenix with Terrance "Graverobber" Zdunich for the first ever director-approved REPO! Live with a full Shadow cast performance of the entire film. Graverobber devotees will have a chance to bid on a date with Terrance Zdunich and fans of Bousman's non-operatic endeavors can enjoy the SAW Movie Marathon. 35mm prints of SAW 2, 3 & 4 will screen simultaneously and will conclude with a Q & A session with Bousman. In addition to the film events live music and comedic acts will be peppered throughout the evening.

Saturday March 21 the madness continues with a repeat screening of the SAW 2, 3 & 4 marathon. REPO! Live will have an encore performance. This will be followed by live music by glam-billy rockers Creepsville 666 and the all femme-fatale sounds of the Cosmeticators. Then bring out your virgins for the Rocky Horror Picture Show, this edition; "Bring a Virgin to Rocky Night" will celebrate (and titillate) those new to the Rocky experience. Wannabe rockers can enter the Zombie Rock Band contest, where patrons in their best zombie duds can compete for prizes while rocking out on the multiplayer video game.

Sunday March 22 winds down with a special mystery movie screening courtesy of the Midnite Movie Mamacita. Sure to be a crowd pleaser.
